2. What data we collect

We may collect:

- Name and contact details
- Company and role (if given)
- Information in your message or inquiry
- Property details related to your case
- Technical data such as IP address and time of contact

3. Why we use your data

We use personal data to:

- Receive and answer your messages and inquiries
- Provide and develop our services
- Prepare and manage offers, contracts and customer relationships
- Fulfil legal obligations (for example accounting)

The legal basis is our legitimate interest, performance of a contract and legal obligations.

4. How long we keep data

We store data only as long as needed for the purposes above or as required by law. Inquiry data is kept while the matter is active and for a reasonable time after. Contract and transaction data may be stored longer if required by law.

5. Sharing data

We may share data with:

- Service providers (such as IT, email and accounting) who process data on our behalf
- Authorities when required by law

We do not sell personal data.

6. Transfers outside the EU/EEA

If data is transferred outside the EU/EEA, we use safeguards required by law (such as standard contractual clauses).

7. Your rights

You have the right to:

- Request access to your data
- Request correction or deletion in certain cases
- Object to or restrict processing in certain cases
- Withdraw consent if processing is based on consent
- Lodge a complaint with the Finnish Data Protection Ombudsman (tietosuoja.fi)

To use your rights, contact us at info@arkkukari.fi.

8. Security and updates

We use appropriate measures to protect personal data. We may update this notice; the latest version is available on our website.
